

TIGRES DE QUINTANA ROO

January 2019

The alliance benefits a large number of baseball fans who work in the tourist developments, in addition to giving added value to tourists who are looking for new attractions where they can have a good time during their stay. The purpose of the agreement is to strengthen the promotion of sports tourism. The signing of this agreement grants discounts and special promotions for attending baseball games.