

Anáhuac
CANCÚN

UNIVERSIDAD ANÁHUAC CANCÚN

February 2020

The agreement establishes to carry out specific programs through seminars, conferences, certification programs and continuing education in fields of common interest, as well as to develop professional training and community service programs to meet the demands of the community. UAC students and interns have the opportunity to put their acquired knowledge into practice through professional internships and social service at ACOTUR.